Teaching & learning methods used:

Course Details

A pattern is supplied which can be altered to fit any size of laptop or tablet. The body of the bag is padded, quilted and then lined.

The flap is decorated with bias applique. This applique technique can also be used on other items such as bags, cushions, patchwork blocks or garments. This project can be made on any sewing machine, providing it has both straight and zigzag stitches. A requirements list will be supplied in advance and the pattern and a full set of notes will be available for everyone who joins the course.

How progress and success will be recorded:

Materials required for first week:
