Course Details

The aim of this course is to provide the basics of the French language, enabling students to get by in French speaking countries. Emphasis will be given to developing speaking and listening skills during the lessons with an opportunity to improve reading and writing through homework tasks. The course will cover greeting and introductions, talking about your home, your family, food and finally Christmas traditions in France. Learners are encouraged to share their own particular language interests and the course can be adapted to meet your specific needs.

How progress and success will be recorded:

Students monitor their own progress by completing fun and informal activities at the end of each unit to see how much they have learnt and then note achievements within a simple recording sheet.

Materials required for first week:

Usborne Internet-linked French for beginners (with CD)
